ORDER ON MOTION

Plaintiff has filed a request that he be allowed to serve Defendants' counsel with copies of pleadings via the United States Postal Service. Plaintiff contends that he has no one available to serve his documents on counsel.

Plaintiff is advised that the court imposes no burden on him to serve pleadings on counsel of record by and/or through an individual. Service of pleadings on both the court and counsel of record through the U.S. mail system is sufficient.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion for Service of Pleadings by and through United States Mail (Doc. No. 22), be and is hereby GRANTED.

Done, this 20th day of April 2007.
